“ Lola, Ron, Debbie, Pam,

We love you guys, loved your husband and daddy, I remember growing up some of the things your dad would do, his jokes, the first time I remember your mom and dad they lived up stairs in an apartment and Charles was showing us kids how a penny would disappear with a glass of water. Then I remember the times he would fly down to the farm to see us, he would circle a few times and then he would land the plane in the pasture. He would always say I'm not going to do that again a little to close to the trees on the take off. Maybe a month would go by and he would come again. As growing up Shirley, Makki and were excited to thank a airplane had landed in our pasture. I remember a lot of good time we had when we were growing up just being around you guys. I enjoyed going to church with you also. I loved the part when Lola would teach and Charles would read for her. Just remember he's in a better place enjoying him self with all our loved ones that has gone on. Live for the Lord and we can also go see him again. A reunion .

We are praying for you guys. Love and Prayers
