“ I love Chris soo much. And I am deeply saddened that I can't be there. We used to joke that we were brother's from another mother. He was my best friend and I will miss him. I'll miss not being able to laugh at the inside jokes that only he and I knew. My heart and everything that is me prays, that you all will be nutured in your time of loss.##imported-begin##Jackson##imported-end##

“ During my time at Carpet One I met and quickly became friends with Chris. He loved sports and we would go to high school basketball games together. Most of all I remember the constant smile he had on his face. I'm grieved to hear of his passing and I'm praying for peace to be with his family during this trying time.##imported-begin##Jason Gates##imported-end##

“ To all the family of Chris Brown we would just like to give you our prayers and condolences at this time in your life. Chris was a wonderful young man. I know he will be terribly missed by all who knew him.
Id like to say something that I remember about Chris. We were youth pastors at Saved By Grace and we went on a trip with the young adults canoeing and I am disabled and knew this would be a hard trip for me. We got to one point on the trip where the waters were rough and evryone was tipping their canoe and they knew we would soon be there so Chris and Cenorina waited on us and came quickly to my rescue when we indeed tipped. Chris was right there helping me out of a mess.My husband actually needed more help than me and we had a great laugh over it. Ill NEVER forget him. Thank you for sharing your beautiful son with us for a few precious moments of his short life.##imported-begin##Mike and Angie Collins##imported-end##
