August 12, 1926 - December 19, 2012

Ellen Elizabeth McCamey, beloved mother, grandmother and great-grandmother, peacefully passed away Wednesday, December 19, 2012. Ellen was born on August 12, 1926 in Springdale, Arkansas to James Clarence "Clint" McCoy and Mary Alice Kennan.

She is preceded in death by her husband of 63 years, Ervin Eugene McCamey and her parents, Clint and Mary McCoy. She is survived by her four children, Barbara Ludwig and husband Stanley, James McCamey and wife Brenda, Nancy Chaney and husband Robert and Mary Kelly and husband George. Ellen also leaves behind 5 grandchildren and 12 great-grandchildren. Ellen graduated from nursing school in 1974 and retired after a 20 year career in nursing where she compassionately cared for patients in the Emergency Room and the Intensive Care Unit. She loved being a nurse and her dedication to the field was unparalleled. Most important to Ellen though was her family. She was a wonderful cook who was always excited to feed her large family, plus anyone who wanted to attend her dinners.

“ Mary, I'm so sorry to read about your mom's passing. Her picture was lovely and you definitely favor her. She raised a wonderful daughter, that is for sure. I have a tendency to read obituaries-- maybe it is my age that makes me do that?? But when I saw that you (and George) were related, I wanted to send my ( and Steve's) thoughts and prayers your way. “ My condolences on the loss of Ellen from your family. I met Ellen in 1974 when I was a student at the Sequoya nursing school. Our paths crossed numerous times over the years. I am sad to say it has easily been 20 years since I last spoke with Ellen. She was a wonderful caring lady.###imported-begin##Michael Coleman###imported-end##

“ Nancy and Barbara,
I am so sorry to hear of your mother's passing. She certainly left a big footprint and so many people in Springdale remember her fondly. I will not be able to attend the services as I am out of town until New Years but you are in my thoughts and prayers. I am praying for your comfort. " Underneath are the everlasting arms" .
