“ I was saddened to read of Fred's passing and you each have my condolences. Christy, your father had an impact on me from late in high school until those first years of college. I often remark to people how Fred and I would watch Sanford and Son every night. I wish to offer the entire family (and look how it has grown!) my deepest sympathy and wanted you, your brother and your mother to know that I think of you all every time I drive past the old house on Hwy 16.

Sincerely,

“ I can see Fred led by his gaurdian angels into the presence of Christ Jesus, Our Lord taking Fred in His arms. Your dad resting his head in the bosom of Christ, asking our Saviour, "Have you listened to my son playing the piano?"
Jesus smiles and nods his head....##imported-begin##Blake A. Hoover##imported-end##

“ Dear Emerts,

I am so very sorry for your loss. I remember a pastor saying years ago that if you hadn't buried your dad, you have a sad day waiting for you. A parent or grandparent is so important in our lives that you never really totally adjust to their absence.

We pray that God will sustain you and give you great peace. He is sufficient although the loss hurts so very much.

We are praying for your family,

“ Fred, a dear friend and blessing to all who had the good fortune of knowing him. I have very fond memories of our times together in choir practice. Now he is finally home in the arms of Jesus where we all long to be one day. Fred was a shining example for all to follow as a husband, father, grandfather, and friend. He will be missed by all of us, but oh what fun and fond memories we will forever cherish.###imported-begin##Jackie & Tom Poage###imported-end##
