“ I always looked forward to Gary coming to the office. At first he came across as gruff. But I got to know him and found out he was really a great guy. My sympathies to his family and friends.##imported-begin##Vee##imported-end##

“ What attracted me to Gary was that he lived simply; meaning, he really and truly "wore life like a loose garment." Gary's core and foundation was apparently to sow harmonious tidings between those around him; I, as a student of this art, Gary being the teacher. He is one of those whose actions EXPRESSED and DELIVERED. I love and will miss you teacher.##imported-begin##Thomas lawless##imported-end##

“ Gary was a daily deliverer of material for the RADAR Center, a statewide clearinghouse located on the Boise State University campus. The staff looked forward to his cheerful greeting and his humor. We regularly addressed one of our staff as "Baker" since her last name was "Cook", which always brought a chuckle. Gary was an example of how someone who provides a routine service can make a difference in the lives of those they serve. He is sorely missed.

“ I got to know Gary from work at Boise State University. He delivered packages to our department. Gary was such a friendly person and a joy to have around even if it was for a brief period of time while he made the delivery. Whenever I saw him on campus he would wave hello and smile. I remember when we found out he was injured the first thing we asked was when he was coming back. Later we found out he would never be back. I hope he is in a much better place now and is no longer suffering. I am so thankful for all of you that loved and cared for him in his last days and that he was able to be amongst family. He will be missed.###imported-begin##Sindia Padilla###imported-end##

“ Gary reminded me a lot of Eeyore from Winnie the Pooh. I found it my mission to make him smile. He would always call me sweetheart and when I gave him a homemade piece of banana bread we exchanged a hug. He always smelled of Old Spice and smokes. Reminded me of my Grandfather. I will truly miss Gary. Seeing his face always brightened my day. I want his family to know what a difference he made in my life as well as many others here at BSU, Thank you Gary for touching my heart. God bless your family. Be happy and at peace my dear Eeyore.##imported-begin##Conchi Sierra##imported-end##

“ I worked with Gary for 21 years. He was always a steady worker and got his job done right. He came to my home to have dinner and play pinochle many times. We all enjoyed his sense of humor and will miss him.

Thanks from his Boise State University family to Jack hill and others that tended to Gary during his last days.
