

Jim Fulfer

March 3, 1941 - January 8, 2010

Jimmie Lee Fulfer, Jr. went to Heaven to meet his Lord on Friday, January 8, 2010. He was born in Springdale, Arkansas on March 3, 1941 to Jimmie, Sr. and Josephine Fulfer. He was a former service manager for Freightliner dealerships in Arkansas, Texas, and Oklahoma. He and his son were business partners for the last twenty years.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

His loving family includes his wife, Jean, of forty-eight years, one son, Brent Fulfer and wife Dana, one daughter, Audra Corbitt and husband Brad, three granddaughters, Amanda Hoover and husband Ryan, Andrea Fulfer, and Hannah Corbitt all of Springdale, Arkansas. He also precedes two brothers John Fulfer and family of Springdale and James Fulfer and family of Centerton, Arkansas.

He was an avid “street rodder” and the proud owner of a 1948 Chevy Truck, which he built with the help of family and friends. He was a member of First Assembly of God in Springdale for more than thirty-five years and was attending Harmony Church of Huntsville at present. He enjoyed taking trips to car shows with family members and several of his “street rodding” friends. He also enjoyed having breakfast on Saturday mornings with his brothers and several of his buddies. He enjoyed the personal relationship he shared with all of his family and large scope of friends.

On November 14, 2009, a pancake breakfast was given in his honor. He was surprised with the attendance of over 400 friends and family members. He was known as a person who always found the good in people and was a man of great integrity and well founded faith.

“ My deepest sympathy to Audra, Mama Jeanie, Brent and the entire Fulfer family. I have warm and wonderful memories growing up around the Fulfer home. Papa Jim always had a new joke for me. It was filled with love, laughter, and respect every time you walked through the door. Heaven is definitely getting sweeter all the time. May the peace that passes all understanding be your comfort during this difficult time. Love you all.##imported-begin##Angela Mount##imported-end##

“ Dear family,

We parted at the breakfast party expressing how long we had known each other, worked together, attended church together and raised our families along side at all kinds of functions in life and death. Jimmy was a good to the core, kind, family man who would do anything to help you. He is now with the Fulfer reunion we can't attend today..maybe later.##imported-begin##Rondell "Ron" Harrison##imported-end##
