“ Dear Debbie, we just heard about Kiley. We are so so terribly, terribly sorry. Kiley, even though it was kindergarten, she was to us a VERY VERY SPECIAL person. I will always remember you telling me when you were moving away that Kiley asked you who would take care of Holly if she was not here. I am truly sorry for the years that went by of losing touch. She will always be SO dear and has been all these years to my heart for her precious friendship to Holly. We will always love her.##imported-begin##Patti Grace##imported-end##

“ When I saw Kiley's obituary, my heart sank and I was in disbelief. Kylie and I played basketball against each other for many years. We developed a friendship and she has left an impression in my heart that I will always carry with me. She had such an infectious smile and attitude. She will be missed and will always be loved. The Martens Family will be in my prayers!

“ When I heard about Kiley this morning my heart sank and I cannot begin to find the words to express my sorrow for your loss. It's not often that someone touches your heart like Kiley touched everyone who knew her. In my years as a counselor at Northark, Kiley is one of the students I always remembered. She was an example of the best and brightest - so full of love for God, her family and her friends. My life is better for having known her, even for such a short time. My deepest sympathies to your family.###imported-begin##Lesli Young###imported-end##

“ I cannot express how much it saddens me that Kiley is gone. I can remember all the times we spent watching movies at the martens' house, playing basketball, or just doing church activities together. She was a true woman of God and her kindness as well as her character will continue to inspire me all through my life. Kirby and Amelia I know you are proud of your sister because there is much to be proud of. She will be deeply missed by all of us.

The LORD is near to all who call on him, to all who call on him in truth.

He fulfills the desires of those who fear him; he hears their cry and saves them.

“ Kiley,
I wrote this poem in honor of your life, with which you brought so much joy.

Always Will:

-Loved by many,

-Loved by all

-Sometimes we slip,

-Sometimes we fall

-A life was taken from us, one that we shall all miss

-One that made life, a complete sheer bliss.

-We dont understand

-You probably didnt either

-Our feelings for you, got deeper and deeper

-You were beautiful inside and out

-That, we all know, without a doubt

-Your heart of gold, and your life yet to unfold

-Your smile flashes before my eyes, and reminds me that this just has to be a lie

-We will all miss you so much

-We will never let go,

-We long for your touch

-It may be to late, it might not seem right

-But all of us here, still love you tonight

-We loved you once, we love you still

-Always have, always will

May you rest in peace Kiley. Thank you for everything you've done for me. I love you =j##imported-begin##Kelsey Brown (Christian Life Cathedral)##imported-end##

“ Kiley was an incredible woman! She lit up the room with her sense of humor, beauty, and happy smile. I will forever remember her laugh and how excited she got to see her friends and family. She was a blessing to all who knew her, and all who knew her, loved her. She will be missed terribly and I pray for you, her family, that you will be given the strength to endure the next few hard days ahead. God bless you.##imported-begin##Jessica McCash##imported-end##

“ My thoughts and prayers are with the family and friends of Kiley. I worked with Kiley and Debbie at Family Clinc years ago and found Kiley to be a true joy to be around. She smiled a lot, loved to laugh, liked to be goofy, but was also very thoughtful and a smart and hard worker. It was easy to see God's light shining through her- she was truly a blessing to all who had the honor of knowing her. Thanks Kiley for touching my life.##imported-begin##Donna Keeney##imported-end##

“ Kiley was a wonderful person and I'm grateful I had the opportunity to know her. We were merely classmates in high school, but even a complete stranger could tell how great of person she was with ease. May she rest in peace and let God take care of her and her loved ones.

We'll all miss you Kiley.##imported-begin##Josh Ferguson##imported-end##

“ Dear Martens Family,

I can't even fathom what you are feeling at the moment. Kiley was an amazing, beautiful, and inspiring young woman, and I feel blessed to have been able to know her. I will always cherish the memories we shared of the days we played after school together. Although I will be unable to attend the service because I'm currently residing in Washington, D.C., please know that your family is in my thoughts and prayers that God will give you strength, surround each one of you with his endless love, and provided each of you with healing!

God Bless, Lucy Pendleton##imported-begin##Lucy Pendleton##imported-end##

“ Kiley meant as much to me as anyone on this earth. She was the most genuinely kind, loving, compassionate, joyful, warm and unselfish person I have ever known.
There are very few people who can light up a room just with their presence. Kiley was one of those people. Her joy was infectious. I feel like I'm a better person for having known Kiley.
My only solace in this moment is knowing that she is with Jesus now and that I will see her again one day.
Kiley's influence on me and on many others will be with us a long time. I'll never forget you Kiley. I love you. I miss you. Rest in peace.##imported-begin##Nathan Striegler##imported-end##

“ Family and friends my heart is with you all. You are in my prayers constantly. I pray for strength and peace during your time of loss. Please know that God will never leave or forsake you. I was so blessed to have gotten to know Kiley while working with her at AWG. She and I attended a Women's Bible study together, went to see the movie "Hairspray," and she even blessed my husband and I by baby-sitting our son while we went on a date. These are just a few of my fond memories of her...I will miss her beautiful, joyfu smile that could light of a room. I know that God is so proud of the Woman of Integrity Kiley Martens was. Be blessed and know that we will see our beautiful Kiley again in heaven. Smile.
