“ My Nanny was a very strong, patient, loving, and independent woman, with a dash of sass. I remember being told growing up that I was very similar to my Nan. And knowing that always made me feel proud. As the first grandchild I have many years of memories to cherish, and we all have an amazing example of faith to follow. Nan - I am sorry I couldn't visit you more often; that is truly my regret. I love you so much and will miss you greatly. Rest in His Peace.##imported-begin##Kayla Huggins##imported-end##

“ *I am so sorry to hear of Pansy's passing. Thirty-six years ago I was looking for someone to take care of my first baby, Krissy, and I found Pansy. I felt so fortunate. She took very good care of Krissy for a couple of years. A year later I needed someone for my son, Casey, and Pansy was willing to take care of him for a few months. Again, I felt very fortunate to have someone like Pansy taking care of my children.
