

Scot Jackson

June 30, 1966 - January 9, 2013

Scot Lee Jackson, age 46 of Fayetteville, Arkansas, left to join The Lord and his mother, Sharon, on January 9, 2013.

Scot was a 1984 graduate of Rogers High School in Rogers, Arkansas. He spent his career selling cars at local dealerships in the Northwest Arkansas area.

Scott had a huge enthusiasm for life, his family and friends. He thrived on having fun but mostly Scot enjoyed being outdoors which included hunting and fishing with his closest friends. He would always entertain a round of golf if you gave him a stroke or two and often just enjoyed the company of friends from the cart. He was a great fan of football and baseball, often watching the Steelers or Braves with his best friends and pals.

As many know, Scot was a wonderfully funny person and while his quick wit and sense of humor was sometimes brash, he always had the best intentions. His quirky smile and loving stare always put a smile on your face. Scot would always make sure to put others before himself, to give more than he could and he never met a stranger.

He is survived by his father Carl of Pea Ridge; sisters Diana Steffenson, Teresa McChristian and husband Johnny; brothers Dirk Jackson of Rogers and Mark Jackson of Arizona; special Uncle Craig McIntyre of South Dakota; nephews Kyle Patrick and Bret Jackson; nieces Kaci Patrick, Uriel Jackson, Halee Jackson and Ravyn Steffenson; great niece Marley Boyd and many caring cousins, friends and loved ones. He also leaves behind his furry friend and “Baby Girl”, Shatzi.

Scot’s family would like to personally thank Dr. Hey and his team at the Dialysis Center of Northwest Arkansas for their contributions during his fight with kidney failure and his nurse, Sarah, and the team at WRMC who cared for him in the end.

Scot, you have touched so many and will never be forgotten. May your spirit live on in all of us and encourage us to give more and cherish the moments we have together.

“ I wasn't as fortunate as many by knowing Scot since High School. I was not cheated out of getting to share many great laughs with him, though. He had an infectious humor, and was never short on jokes. He was always ready to get out and see one of the local bands. I hadn't seen him a few years, but his great smile will never be forgotten. My family will be lifting up prayers for those who loved him. May our merciful, loving Lord wrap his arms around you and give you peace in this time of sadness.##imported-begin##Tonya Powell-Bridges##imported-end##
