

Zandra Kay Parson

March 7, 1939 - June 2, 2014

Zandra Kay Parson, 75, of Fayetteville, passed from this life on Monday, June 2, 2014 at Circle of Life Hospice. She was born on March 7, 1939, in Huntsville, to Nolan and Donna Cain.

Zandra is preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Alfred L. Parson; and three brothers, Jerral "Doc" Cain, Arthur Cain, and Ronney Cain.

Left to cherish her memory are her two children, Teena Payne of Lexington, KY and Brian Parson of Springdale; three sisters, Janice Swift of Springdale, Clela Burlison of Sallisaw, OK, and Shirley Stephens of Springdale; four grandchildren, Zach Payne of Dallas, TX, Garrett Payne of Lexington, KY, Matthew Parson of Springdale, and Blair Parson of Springdale; and one great-grandson, Cooper Payne.

Zandra enjoyed cooking, gardening, reading, picnics and laughing. She also had a great respect and love of our Lord and enjoyed sharing Jesus with others. She was lovingly referred to as "Zeze" by her grandchildren and she treasured spending as much time as possible with them.

“ *Janice; Clela and Shirley.....
So sorry to hear about Zandra.
She was a sweet Lady.*

*As I think back, it only seems a short time ago, we were all young people growing up in a small town, knowing each other.
My thoughts & prayers are with you all.*

Take care!

“ Having spent many hours in Al & Zandra's home as a young woman, Zandra's zeal for life, compassion & loving guidance will forever be a part of me. Even as her health declined she always had a bright smile & a hug for me. Although our hearts are saddened she is no longer with us physically, she will forever be in our hearts.##imported-begin##Susan (Whittle) Herwaldt##imported-end##

“ Was a blessing & privilege to serve & spend time with Zandra during her stay at Culpepper. I danced many times with her as she so loved music & dancing. Beautiful lady inside & out. Heartfelt sympathy for the entire family. May God Bless & comfort all of you.##imported-begin##Damita Grigg##imported-end##
